JAKARTA ART INSTITUTE

The OK. Video Militia workshop taking place in the only art institute in Jakarta was realized due to the collaboration between ruangrupa and the Students' Union of the Jakarta Art Institute (IKJ). The IKJ was established in 1970, out of the struggle of the artists of Jakarta to make the capital city of Jakarta as the center of the developments for the modern art in Indonesia. The establishment of the Jakarta Art Institute took place hand in hand with the establishment of the Jakarta Art Council and Jakarta Art Center. The institute has produced a lot of great artists, especially in the field of film and television. So far, IKJ is the only university-level film school in Indonesia.

The workshop at IKJ took place on May 21–28, 2007, followed by seven participants who were art students and one of them was a student from the University of Indonesia. The week-long workshop produced three collaborative works. The post-production processes of the workshop took place in ruangrupa, as the Faculty of Art at the IKJ could not give the participants the access to its audiovisual editing studio. The videos produced during this workshop are: My Fingers Game (Very Short), Rupa-Rupa–Rambut Berupa (Miscellaneous Hairstyles), and What is Beauty. From the three works, only Rupa-Rupa–Rambut Berupa that talks more about the problems in the school life and the phenomenon often found among art students.

INSTITUT KESENIAN JAKARTA

Workshop OK. Video Militia yang berlangsung di satu-satunya kampus kesenian di Jakarta ini adalah hasil kerjasama ruangrupa dengan Himpunan Mahasiswa Seni Rupa Institut Kesenian Jakarta (IKJ). IKJ berdiri 1970, atas kerja keras para seniman Jakarta demi menjadikan ibu kota ini sebagai pusat perkembangan kesenian modern di Indonesia. Berdirinya IKJ beriringan dengan berdirinya Dewan Kesenian Jakarta dan Pusat Kesenian Jakarta. Kampus kesenian ini telah banyak menghasilkan seniman-seniman besar di bidangnya masing-masing, terutama dari jurusan film dan televisi; sampai saat ini sekolah film untuk tingkat perguruan tinggi di Indonesia hanya di IKJ.

Workshop di IKJ berlangsung pada 21–28 Mei 2007, diikuti oleh tujuh peserta. Para peserta adalah mahasiswa senirupa dan satu orang mahasiswa periklanan Universitas Indonesia. Selama satu minggu, workshop menghasilkan tiga karya video kolaborasi. Proses pascaproduksi workshop ini diselesaikan di ruangrupa, karena fakultas senirupa IKJ tidak dapat membukakan studio editing audio-visualnya untuk para peserta. Karya-karya video yang dihasilkan dalam workshop ini adalah My Fingers Game (Very Short); Rupa-Rupa-Rambut Berupa; dan What is Beauty. Dari tiga karya tersebut, hanya Rupa-Rupa-Rambut Berupa yang lebih membicarakan persoalan di kampus dan fenomena mahasiswa kesenian.
