

Friends of Jenny Verroen will be pleased to hear that she is back in Australia and in a rehabilitation facility on the Gold Coast. Jenny experienced an aneurism while on holiday in Minnesota recently. Her condition is improving every day and husband Gerard and supporters are expecting an excellent recovery. Visitors are asked to hold off for a few weeks until Jenny feels ready, but can keep abreast of her improvements on www.caringbridge.org/mn/jenverroen.

Residents of Coopers Shoot Road might want to take a look at DA 2005.404.1. Optus Mobile are proposing erecting a 20 metre pole with antenna at 59 Coopers Shoot Road. Submissions are open until July 27.

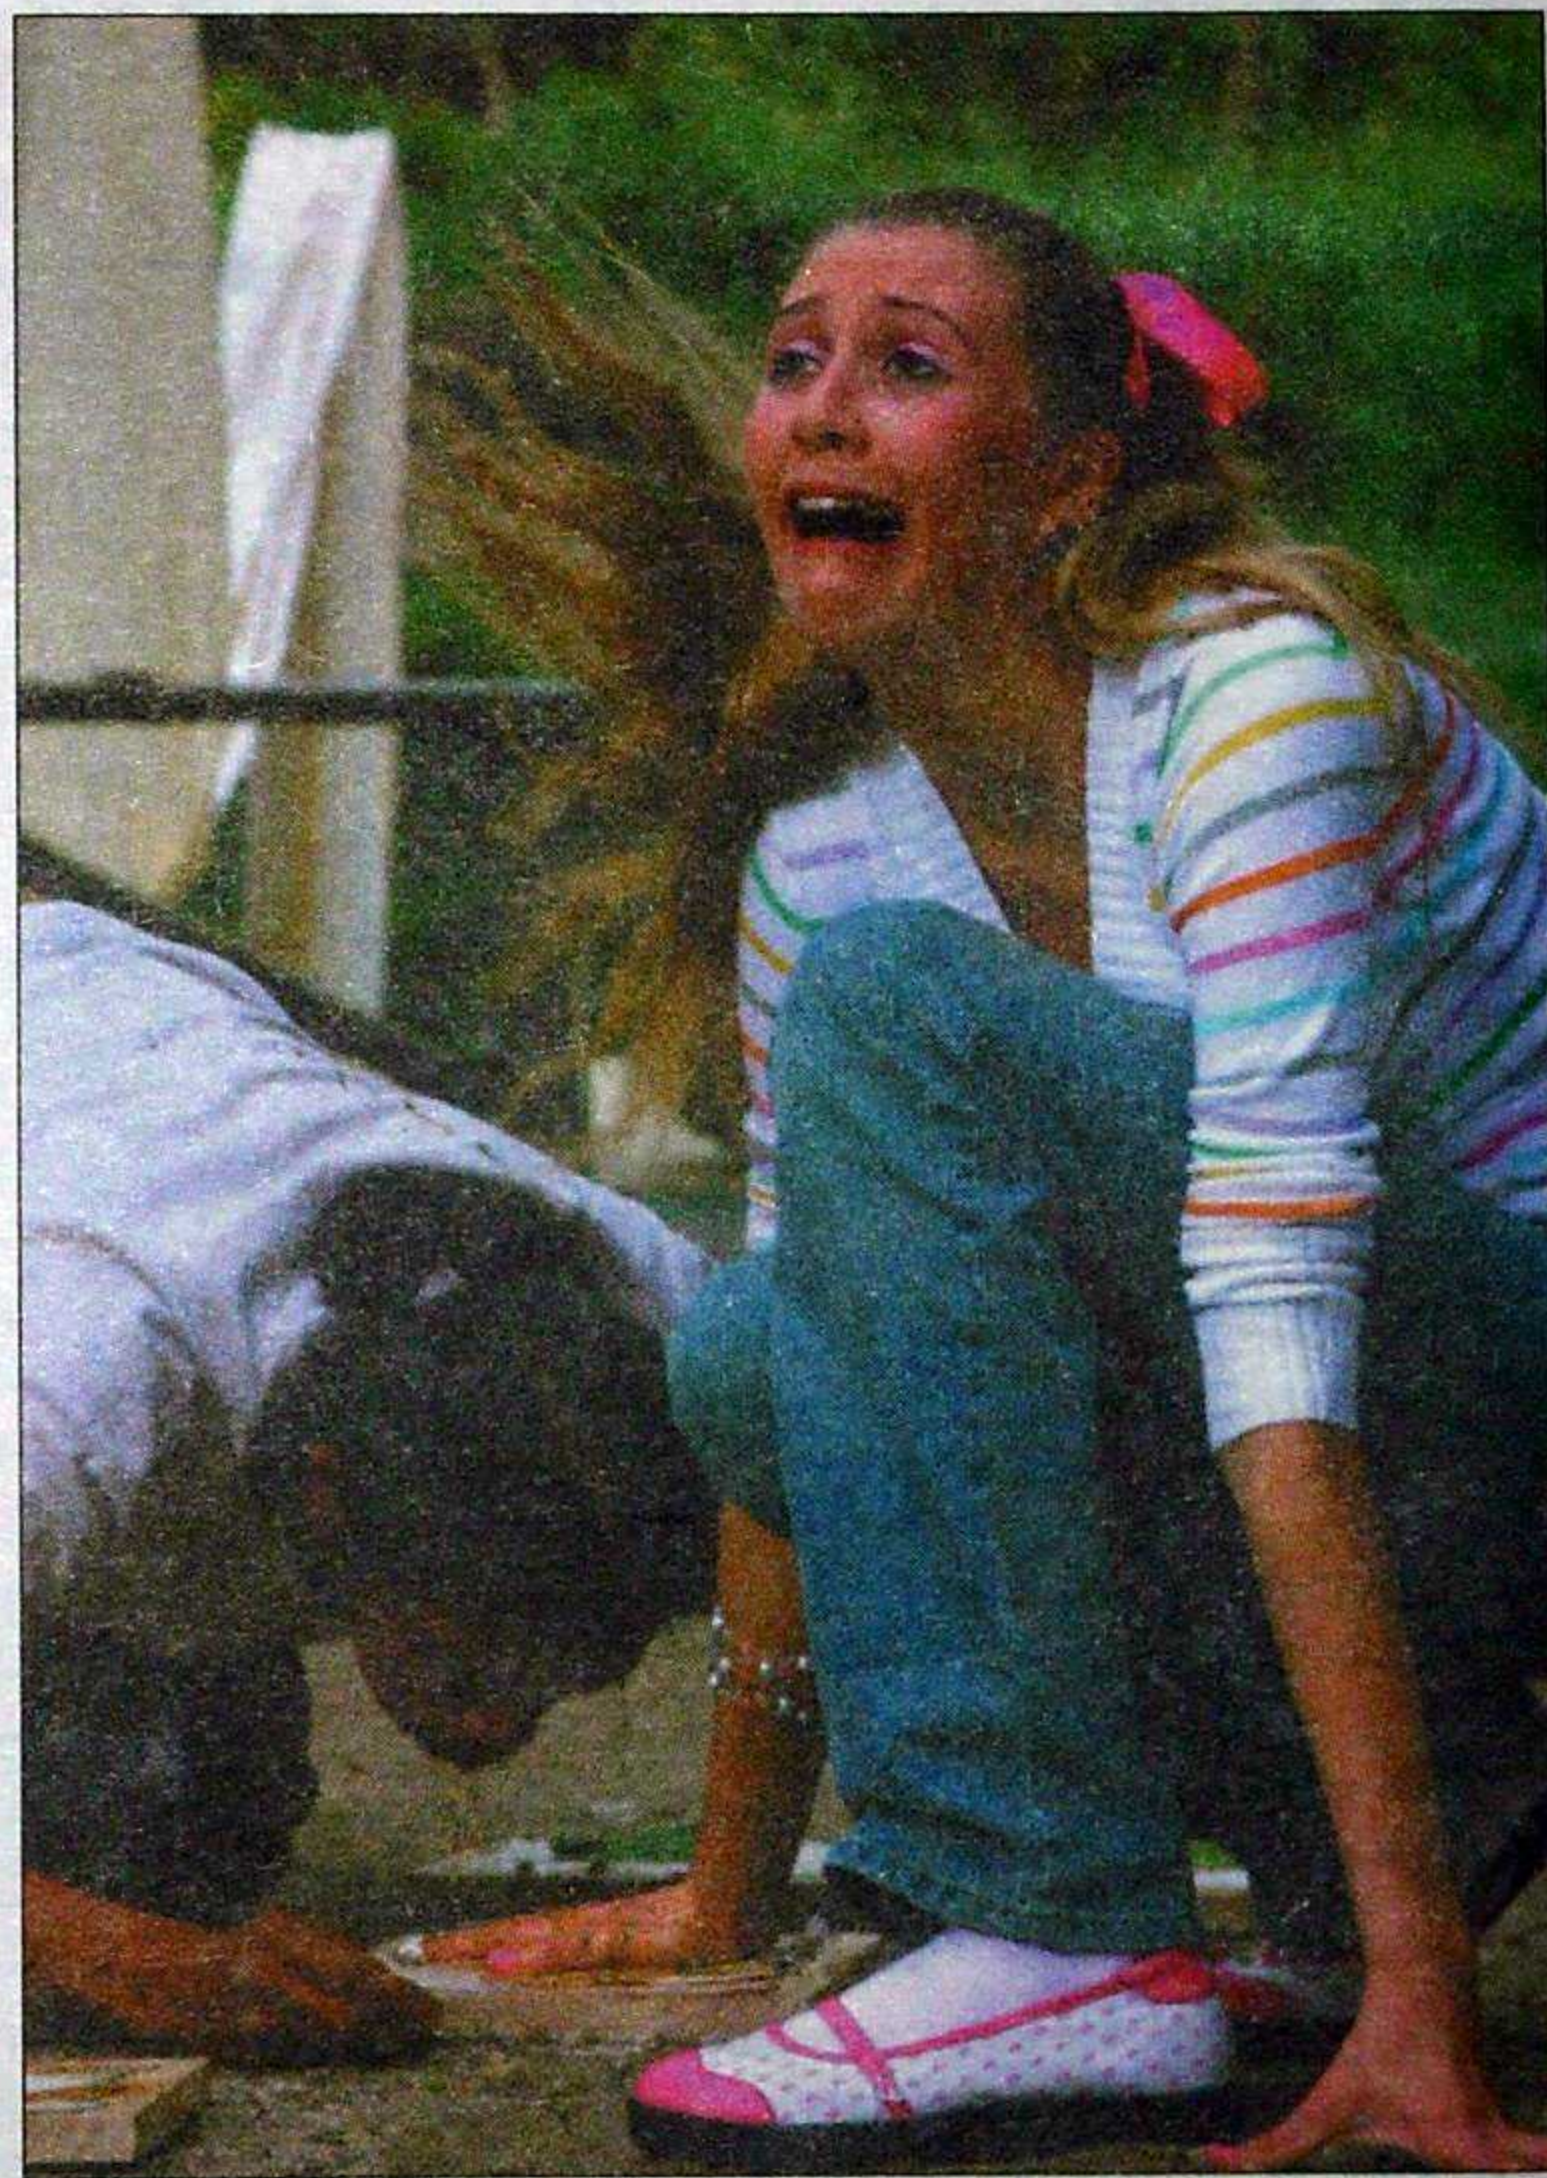

Pig Power is the latest experiment with renewable energy. Energy Australia is planning to install three gas-fired electricity generators on the OAF

'Oh My God, I can't believe I volunteered for this!' Alice O'Donnell, right, didn't know what she was getting herself in for when she agreed to be a part of 'Shadow of hands for peace'. The performance art piece by Indonesian artist Firman Djimal involves a chewed up concoction of tobacco, betel nut, lime and a raw egg being chewed up then spat out (like a lung powered spray gun) around the victim's hand. This was part of last weekend's Inspirasi Festival at the Arts Factory Lodge. Photo Jeff 'Betel Juice' Dawson its perilous transport system and ludicrous water usage.

If you want to know what to do in a kitchen fire, apart from making toast over the burning drapes, or how to prevent one, download the safety fact sheet from the NSW Fire Brigade at www.fire.nsw.gov.au. Proverbially, you may throw oil on troubled waters but do not throw

Thinking Real Estate? Think